Sugar for Athletes

MELVIN W. SHEPPARD, captain of the Irish American Athletic Club, was in a jocular mood yesterday. In descanting on the trend of the times to keep athletics pure he referred to the writers of a few years ago who had designated the crack runners as "Sugar Kings." There was an accent on the sugar and Mel rather despondently called attention to the recent tariff legislation, in which the duty was taken off sugar. "Now they will have to compete free," was his closing
